TWO MEN KILLED IN NEWARK.
They Were Struck by a Locomotive on the New Jersey Central Road.
Newark, Oct. 15.—Two men were killed by locomotive 138 at the Lawrence street crossing of the Central railroad at 7 o'clock this morning. They were Patrick O'Connor, thirty-five years old, manager of the People's Supply company, and Peter McKellar, thirty years old, his assistant. McKellar's home is at 9 Franklin street, Boston.
The men were attempting to cross the Newark and New York branch of the Central road at the grade crossing when the 7 o'clock express was pulling out of the station. They were struck by the locomotive, in charge of Engineer Meade.
O'Connor's body was cut in two and his head was crushed. McKellar was frightfully mangled, but lived until he reached St. Michael's hospital.

Awaiting Harvard's Reply.
Princeton, Oct. 15.—The undergraduates of Princeton are anxiously awaiting Harvard's final reply to the communication forwarded by the advisory board on Saturday night.

A football game between Harvard and Princeton is far from being the certainty that has been represented by Princeton correspondents. Manager Milbank in a conversation to-day stated most emphatically that Princeton would play on November 2 or not at all. Harvard has held out for November 9, and unless the Cambridge men concede the point the game will not be arranged.

It is the consensus of opinion in the Princeton camp that Harvard will yield the point. This sentiment was distinctly expressed by the management to-day when they ordered "Beef" Wheeler to again join the ranks of the "Varsity." "Beef" was indignant to play in the Yale game, as he has already played four years with the Tigers. This four year clause will not apply in the Harvard game, and his presence in the practice to-day is taken by the undergraduates to signify the management's assurance of a game.

The turn affairs have taken is not exactly what the supporters of the orange and black desired. Taylor Payne of the advisory board expressed the sentiment of the undergraduates to-day when he said: "We are willing to lose the game this year if by doing so we can draw Harvard into a series of annual games for five years." This they have failed to do, and the wisdom of entering into a compact for two years is doubted by the wisest heads.

Acceptance Tree cut in England.
Ryde, Isle of Wight, Oct. 15.—The Royal Victoria Yacht club has received a cablegram from the secretary of the New York Yacht club accepting the challenge for the America's cup issued by Mr. Charles D. Rose through the Victoria Yacht club, and giving notice that a committee has been appointed to arrange the conditions of the contest.

FAIR HAVEN.
The schooner Carrie E. Look has arrived from Jacksonville with lumber for the saw mill. Captain Stevens reports heavy weather during the latter part of the passage, and during the recent blow he was obliged to lay the vessel to under Cape Fear. The vessel had a long trip, twenty-three days, having been consumed on the run.

If ever a petition should be successful that one praying for rebuilding the fire alarm bell tower on East Pearl street ought to. The paper is eleven feet in length and contains 500 signatures.

The current number of the Illustrated American contains a group picture of the installation of Captain Samuel Aliman as rear admiral, commanding the National Association of Naval Veterans, which recently took place in Webster hall, New York. In the group is the picture of Walter E. Jacobs, commanding Gideon Welles Association of Naval Veterans, and whose home is on Saltonstall avenue.

The Fair Haven four-master, Napoleon Boughton, has arrived in the harbor with coal for the railroad.

Many Fair Haven Odd Fellows participated in the state parade of the order at Waterbury yesterday.

The friends of Attorney Jason P. Thompson of Pine street will be sorry to learn of his continued serious illness. The second entertainment of the People's course at the Grand avenue Congregational church will be given by the Boston Rivals to-morrow (Thursday) evening. Of Miss Downer, the pianist of the company, the Berlin, N. H., Intelligencer says:
"Miss Downer made an impression here that will not soon be forgotten, although she was heavily handicapped in her solo by being obliged to perform them on the venerable and decrepit 'box' known here as the opera house piano. To musical people, who appreciated her delicate accompaniments to the numbers of the great maestro, a second hearing is looked forward to with pleasant anticipations."

The Waterbury American in a notice of Miss Burpee, the reciter, says: "The favorite of the evening was the eloquent, Miss Vera Burpee, one of the most charming women that have ever graced the stage. The sweetness of her manner, the expressiveness of her face and a wise selection of pieces suited to her personality, made her a great favorite. Her selections were gems in themselves, and such as to give opportunity for a display of her diversified talent."

Ocean Steamships to Race.
New York, Oct. 15.—An international race between ocean steamships will begin to-morrow, when the St. Louis of the American line will compete with the White Star flyer Majestic to settle the question of which service is the quicker in carrying the United States mails to London.

The race will start from New York, the St. Louis going to Southampton and the Majestic to Queenstown and Liverpool. The St. Louis will carry the mails for the first time, a ten years' contract having been granted to the American line by the federal government. She will have to cover 25 miles more than her rival, carrying the bags directly to Southampton, while the Majestic's mail will be unloaded at Queenstown and forwarded to London from there.

It will be carried over the line of the Great Southern railway of Ireland to Kingston by a special train, and from there to Holyhead by steamboat—a distance in all of 504 miles. Fifteen hours and forty minutes is allowed for the trip. From Southampton to London is a journey of two hours.

Thus the St. Louis has about thirteen hours to reach port after the Majestic has made her first stop.

The St. Louis will leave her pier at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, the Majestic starting four hours later.

At Work on General Lathrop's Case.
Albany, Oct. 15.—Governor Morton's legal adviser, Charles Z. Lincoln, is looking over Prison Superintendent Lathrop's denial of the charges made by former Congressman Weaver and former Sheriff J. B. White, filed yesterday. Mr. Lincoln has already read the charges. It is the general impression about the capital and the executive chamber that Governor Morton intends to have Mr. Lincoln pass judgment upon the charges and the denial and dismiss the charges without going to the trouble and expense of appointing a special commissioner, who would have to hold his court of investigation in Steuben county, as that place is General Lathrop's home.

The strength of Superintendent Lathrop's denial lies in the fact that it is backed up by the personal affidavits of a number of witnesses who have a knowledge of the case, while his two republican accusers only allege on information and belief that the charges made in the report of the senate investigation committee are true. They have no personal knowledge of them.

Burned at Sea.
Valparaiso, Oct. 15.—The American ship Parthia, Captain Carter, from Liverpool, June 25, for San Francisco, was burned at sea on October 1. Part of the crew have arrived here, but the captain and first officer, with nineteen of the crew, who left the ship in open boats at the same time, have not been heard of since.

Bold Attempt to Escape.
Port Jervis, N. Y., Oct. 15.—John Flaherty, a notorious burglar and thief, jumped from an Erie train, when it was a mile west of this place, early this morning. Flaherty was on his way to the Albany penitentiary in custody.

Although the train was running at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour Constable Philip Garry, who had Flaherty in charge, jumped from the cars and caught the escaping prisoner before he had gone a great distance. Flaherty was strapped to a seat during the rest of the journey.

Social Party Congress.
Baltimore, Oct. 15.—Motherly looking women with gray hair and earnest faces were largely in evidence at the second day's session of the National Social Party congress. The delegates come from every section of the country to register a protest against the adoption of laws in any of the states which would legalize vice by licensing it.

The session to-day began with the reading of a paper by the Rev. W. T. Sabine, D. D., of New York, on "Social Vice and National Decay."

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who was to have made an address upon "Moral Equality Between the Sexes," was not able to be present, but her paper was read by President Powell.

Emily Blackwell, M. D., of the Woman's Medical college, New York, spoke upon the responsibility of women in regard to questions of public morality. Her paper was brief.

Mrs. Charlton Edholm of the W. C. T. U. was listened to with rapt attention as she delivered an eloquent address on "Traffic in Girls and Florence Crittenton Missions."

She told of the horrors suffered by thousands of young girls lured into haunts of infamy. She described her slumming experiences in many cities and delineated the work of rescuing the fallen.

Mrs. Edholm asserted that of the 250000 young girls in the country, over half had been snared or sold into their lives of shame.

"Their average life is five years," she added. "Forty-six thousand are carted out to Potter's Field every year. Over one hundred American homes have to be desolated every day to recruit the ranks of shame."

"Isn't it time that somebody is trying to save these girls from falling into those dens of iniquity? Twenty million Christians can rescue 200,000 erring girls, or surely the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ is a failure."

Then Mrs. Edholm read a long list of statistics bearing upon her subject.

"Men go out into the country districts," she continued, "and bring these girls into our cities. A mock marriage is often performed, and the girl is taken into these haunts of shame believing she is going to a boarding house. One man who was recently converted told me he had gone through the marriage ceremony twenty times, and every time sold the girl into a house of ill-repute."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.
Meeting of the National Council in This City Yesterday and Election of Officers—Favorable Reports.

The national council of the Knights of Columbus met in the office of Grand Secretary Daniel Colwell in the insurance building yesterday, J. J. Phelan, supreme knight, presiding, and Daniel Colwell of this city, secretary. There were about thirty delegates present, the only absentees being Mr. O'Connor of Manchester, N. H., and Kinney of Holyoke. The delegates represent Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York. There were present from this city Grand Secretary Daniel Colwell, C. T. Driscoll, W. H. Cronan, William M. Geary, Dr. M. C. O'Connor and John T. Kerrigan.

The national officers were elected for the ensuing two years as follows: Grand supreme knight, John J. Phelan, Bridgeport; supreme deputy knight, Jas. Hayes, Boston; grand secretary, Daniel Colwell, New Haven; grand treasurer, P. D. Ryan, Hartford; general examining physician, Dr. Tracy, Meriden.

There was expected to be a big fight over the office of supreme knight, as James Hayes of Boston was a candidate against Phelan, the present delegate. The reason for this was that the Massachusetts delegates made a strong kick because Massachusetts, where the order is strong and constantly growing, was not represented in an office. The matter was compromised, however, before the meeting, and when the election came off Mr. Hayes nominated Mr. Phelan for supreme knight and his election was made unanimous.

Mr. Hayes, however, was given a place on the ticket, succeeding James C. Roach of Wallingford, which official seconded his nomination.

Grand Knight Phelan read a general report, which showed that the order was flourishing. The detailed report of the secretary and treasurer will be given at the next meeting in March, when a board of directors will also be elected.

N. E. O. P.
Charter Oak lodge, N. E. O. P., will meet at 7:30 o'clock to-night instead of at 8 o'clock. A musical and literary entertainment will follow the regular session.
